for purposes which may be regarded as outside his professional capacity, has the right which is the subject of a contract transferred to him or for whom the right which is the subject of the contract is established;

“contract” means any contract or group of contracts concluded for at least three years under which, directly or indirectly, on payment of a certain global price, a real property right or any other right relating to the use of one or more immovable properties for a specified or specifiable period of the year, of not less than one week, is established or is the subject of a transfer or an undertaking to transfer;

“the Director” means the Director of the Enforcement Directorate of the Malta Tourism Authority;

“immovable property” means any building or part of a building for use as accommodation to which the right which is the subject of the contract relates;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for tourism;

“Schedule” means a Schedule to these regulations;

“seller” means any natural or legal person who, acting in transactions covered by these regulations and in the person’s professional capacity, establishes, transfers or undertakes the right which is the subject of a contract.

3.1. The Director shall have the following functions;

3.1.1. to keep under general review, practices or proposed practices in relation to any of the obligations imposed on any persons by these regulations;

3.1.2. to carry out investigations of any such practices or proposed practices where the Director considers that, in the public interest, such investigations are proper, or where the Authority requests the Director to carry out such investigations; and

3.1.3. to request persons engaged in or proposing to engage in such practices as are, or are likely to be, contrary to the obligations imposed on them by these regulations, to discontinue or refrain from such practices.

3.2. The Director may delegate the exercise of these or any other functions under these regulations to any authorised officer.

4.1. A seller shall provide to any person requesting information on an immovable property, a document which shall give;

4.1.1. a general description of the property;

4.1.2. at least, brief and accurate information on the matters referred to in items (a) to (g), (i) and (l) in the First Schedule; and

4.1.3. information on how further information about the property may be obtained.

4.2. Subject to regulation 5 hereof, the information given in a document referred to in subregulation 4.1 shall be contractually binding on the parties to any contract entered into in respect of any immovable property to which it relates.

4.3. Upon the request of the person requesting information on an immovable property, the document referred to in subregulation 4.1 shall be written in the language or one of the languages of the country in which the person requesting the information contained in the document resides, or in the language or one of the languages of the country of which the person is a national, or in a language which that person understands.

4.4. Any advertising referring to the immovable property shall indicate the possibility of obtaining the document referred to in subregulation 4.1 and from where it may be obtained.

4.5. The seller shall ensure that a period of at least seven consecutive days in any calendar year is reserved for repairs, maintenance, cleaning, and other purposes related to the upkeep of the immovable property. A person who contravenes this regulation shall be guilty of an offence.

5.1. Unless the parties expressly agree otherwise, only changes resulting from circumstances beyond the control of the seller may be made to the information provided in the document referred to in subregulation 4.1.

5.2. In order to be included in the terms of the contract, any changes to that information shall be communicated to the buyer before the contract is concluded and shall be expressly mentioned in the contract.

6.1. A contract to which these regulations apply –

6.1.1. shall be in writing,

6.1.2. must include at least the terms referred to in the First Schedule,

6.1.3. at the buyer's option, shall be drawn up in the language or one of the languages of the country where he resides or in the language or one of the languages of the country of which he is a national or in a language he understands.

6.2. The seller shall provide the buyer with a certified translation of the contract in Maltese or in English as the buyer may so request.

7.1. The buyer shall have the right –

7.1.1. to withdraw from the contract, without giving any reason, within ten days of both parties signing the contract, or of both parties signing a binding preliminary contract,

7.1.2. subject to subregulation 7.2, to cancel the contract within three months of the date of both parties signing the contract, or of both parties signing a binding preliminary contract, if the contract does not include the information contained in items (a), (b), (c), (d)(1) and (2), (h), (i), (k), (l) and (m) in the First Schedule, and

7.1.3. if by the end of the three month period referred to in subregulation 7.1.2, the buyer has not exercised the right to cancel and the contract does not include the information referred to in subregulation 7.1.2, - to the withdrawal period of ten working days commencing on the day following the end of the three month period.

7.2. Where the information required by subregulation 7.1.2 is provided within the three months stated in that regulation, then the withdrawal period referred to in subregulation 7.1.1 shall commence.

7.3. The exercise of the rights under this regulation shall be without prejudice to any other rights that the buyer may have under any other law.

7.4 Each contract shall include a clause in the form set out in the Second Schedule to these regulations informing the buyer of his right to withdraw or cancel a contract under these regulations. Such information shall be included with the text of the contract and shall be written in a bold and prominent print. It shall be the duty of the seller to inform the buyer of such a right. If such information is not included in the contract and is not brought to the attention of the buyer by the seller, then the buyer may request that the contract be declared null and void.

8.1. If the purchaser intends to exercise the rights provided for in regulation 7, he shall, before the expiry of the relevant deadline, notify the person whose name and address appear in the contract for that purpose as required under item (l) in the First Schedule. The deadline shall be deemed to have been met if the notification in writing is sent by registered mail, and is sent before the deadline expires.

9.1. If the buyer exercises the right to cancel the contract as provided for in subregulation 7.1.2, he shall not be required to defray any costs.

10.1. The acceptance by a seller or his agent of any advance payment from a buyer before the end of the period during which the buyer may, under subregulation 7.1, withdraw from a contract, shall be prohibited.

10.2. A person who contravenes subregulation 10.1. shall be guilty of an offence.
