PL Poland	Regarding bankruptcy proceedings, Poland is currently preparing a draft Law where the deadline for requesting bankruptcy over the period of pandemic risk shall not be running. Once it began to run, it shall be interrupted.	-	-	-	Court proceedings will be suspended in accordance with the law adopted on 26/03/2020 by the Council of Ministers (i.e. the law going through the parliament at this moment). The instruments prepared by the government limiting the negative effects of Covid-19 are to prevent bankruptcy and protect the labour market.	Restructuring procedures contained in the Restructuring Law contain solutions that weigh the interests of both the debtor and his creditors and serve on the one hand to maintain the existence of the debtor and on the other hand to satisfy creditors as effectively as possible. So they should not by definition be considered detrimental to debtors.	Under the new “anti-crisis shield”, state aid may be given to an entrepreneur in a difficult economic situation (risk of insolvency) who meets the criteria of an entrepreneur threatened with insolvency (art. 141 section 2 of the Restructuring law) or is insolvent (Art. 11 of the Bankruptcy law) who meets also other criteria

SI Slovenia	Law passed on 02-04: deferral of the obligation to file for insolvency and initiate the compulsory settlement procedure, if the insolvency is due to the Covid crisis. Rebuttable presumption of a covid-related insolvency if the Government or local authorities mention the company's activity in a list. If no presumption, proof that the insolvency is due to the epidemic must be given.	If the company is declared insolvent due to the epidemic and when requested by creditors, time limit to achieve restructuration (or to end the insolvency proceeding) is extended by 4 month.	In the area of enforcement, enforcement is suspended. After the amendment enters into force, courts will also be able to issue enforcement and insurance orders and serve them on clients in non-urgent cases that began to run before the introduction of measures due to the epidemic. In these cases, the parties will not be obliged to respond immediately, as the deadlines in non-urgent cases do not run,	-	Insolvency Cases (except for auctions) were first classified urgent (from 13-03) then non-urgent (from 31-03), meaning that hearings are cancelled. During the epidemic, the Insolvency Court would not open an Insolvency case (some exception possible for workers with a terminated contract due to epidemic). The new proposed regime with The Covid-19 Act passed on 29 April, for the duration of the epidemic, allows insolvency parties to submit their application,	An additional irrefutable presumption was introduced: if the employer profit from special Covid measures to protect workers' salaries, it must be paid by 1 month the latest. If not, the employer is deemed insolvent. The measure is in force until 4 months after termination of special measures.	In credit, payment are deferred (specific provision). All revenues obtained from special Covid legislation are excluded from fiscal and civil enforcement (including personal bankruptcy).
