Headnote

This article focuses on the implementation of the Directive 2009/22/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 April 2009 on injunctions for the protection of consumers' interests (OJ L 110, 1.5.2009) and the legal concept of "collective interests of the consumers" from the administrative law perspective.

In addition, it elaborates on the consumer protection organization and their hypothetical ability to sue perpetrators at court in order to satisfy financial claims stemming from the violation of the collective interests of the consumers.

This comprehensive article focuses, amongst other things, on the historical legal development of the current applicable legislation. It also marginally mentions other relevant facts, such as the competences of the National Bank of Slovakia and much more.
