

Home > ... > Legislation and Case Law > National Case Law > Finland

National case law

Content provided by:

Finland

Finland

This page provides you with an overview of Finland's case law.

Case law made available on a website

Presentation of decisions / Headline

For Supreme Courts and most other courts, keywords and headline are shown together with dates, registration number.

Example of headline/s

Finnish Supreme Court

	Employment contract - Transfer of undertaking - EU law - Impact of interpretation of the directive
	Registration number: S2006/340
	Date of presentation: 29.1.2009
	Date of judgment: 23.4.2009
keyword	File: 835
	Case concerns the right of an employee who has resigned during the transfer of an undertaking to receive compensation from the transferee, on the basis of Section 6 of Chapter 7 of the Employment Contracts Act, taking into account the paragraph 2 of article 4 in the Directive of the brief summary	EU Council 2001/23/EC.
	Employment Contracts Act 55/2001, Chapter 7 Section 6
	EU Council Directive 2001/23/EC on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to the safeguarding of employees' rights in the event of transfers of undertakings, businesses or legislation	parts of undertakings or businesses, Article 4 Paragraph 2

The above table shows the information available on Supreme Court judgements. The keywords section includes the keywords and the date of the judgement; the brief summary describes the key content of the judgement, and the references to legislation contain information on relevant national and EU legislation.

Formats

Case law in Finland is available in HTML format.

Further proceedings

Information is available on further proceedings in the following courts:

- General information on appeals is available from the Supreme Court and other courts
- Information on cases pending is available from both the Supreme Court and other courts
- The results of appeals are available from the Supreme Court and other courts
- Information about the irrevocability of a decision is available from the Supreme Court and other courts

- Information before another court (such as the Constitutional Court) is not available from the Supreme Court or other courts
- Information about further proceedings before the European Court of Justice is available from the Supreme Court but not from other courts.

Publication rules

There are binding rules for the publication of case law at the national level and at the level of courts.

Full case law is published by the Supreme Courts and special courts. In other courts, only a selection of the case law is published, depending on the importance of the case, the implementation of new or changes to legislation, and the need to harmonise implementation.

---

■ Last update: 05/11/2020

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.