1. Introduction

The European Commission (hereinafter “the Commission”) is committed to the protection of your personal data and to ensuring that your privacy is respected (Privacy policy for websites managed by the European Commission). The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reasons for the processing of your personal data within European e-Justice Portal, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor. The information herein pertains to the following data processing operations:

The European e-Justice Portal (hereinafter “the e-Justice Portal”) has been established with the objective to provide the general public with access to information, interconnected national databases, interactive services allowing users to communicate directly with the appropriate authorities in another Member State, and to provide contact information of competent national contact authorities and bodies. Therefore, the e-Justice Portal retrieves data for the very specific purpose of combination and alignment of data from different national databases. The Portal also processes personal data in the context of e-mail communication between the Commission, citizens, responsible content administrators and contact points (Data protection record: DPR-EC-01506).

Moreover, specific data processing operations take place in the context of some of the services provided by the e-Justice Portal, e.g. in the context of the “Find a Lawyer”, “Find a Notary” and “Find a company” tools, the European Case Law Identifier (ECLI) Search Engine, the Competent Court Database (CDB) and the Fundamental Rights Interactive Tool (FRIT).

Please note that it is up to Member States and other bodies such as professional associations and non-profit organisations to operate the public databases providing services via the Portal. Data are collected by such entities for the purpose of compliance with national law and to provide necessary information at national level. Such databases are interconnected through the Portal in such a way that the information available at national level can be accessed via the Portal. It is up to Member States and other bodies such as professional associations and non-profit organisations to ensure security of the processing of personal data in their databases.

The Commission provides technical specifications for interconnection to the entities mentioned above. The cooperation between the entities mentioned above and the Commission is ensured on voluntary basis (with the exception of BRIS and IRI 2.0 which are mandatory interconnections according to the applicable law - BRIS: Please see Article 17 of the Directive (EU) 2017/1132 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 relating to certain aspects of company law; IRI.2.0: Please see Article 25 of the Regulation (EU) 2015/848 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 on insolvency proceedings). Therefore, such cooperation is not regulated by any formal arrangement, such as a contract. The Commission ensures security of processing personal data strictly only within the scope of its responsibilities as data controller within the e-Justice Portal.

These data processing operations are carried out by the data controller DG JUST, Unit A1 Digital transition & Judicial training as further elaborated below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation European e-Justice Portal core platform - DPR-EC-01506

Data controller processes personal data for the main purpose of providing a “single one-stop (electronic) shop” for information on justice and access to European judicial procedures e-Justice Portal core platform - DPR-EC-01506).

In addition, separate processing operations take place in the context of the various additional functionalities offered by the e-Justice Portal:

Find a lawyer – Find a notary (Data protection record: DPR-EC-01507)

“Find a Lawyer” and “Find a Notary” are two services provided to the general public by the Commission in collaboration with the relevant national associations of legal professionals (Data protection record: DPR-EC-01507). These associations are responsible for the initial collection of contact details in accordance with the applicable legislation on the protection of personal data (the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)). The Commission provides a search tool to enable cross-border searches for data stored by the national associations. The Commission does neither store such contact details nor the search results.

ECLI search engine (Data protection record DPR-EC-01508)

The European Case Law Identifier (ECLI) Search Engine (Data protection record DPR-EC-01508) is a service provided to the general public by the Commission in cooperation with the participating case law providers, with the objective of facilitating access to European and national case law. Member States and their judicial authorities are responsible for the publication of national case law. The Commission provides a search tool to enable cross-border searches for such case law, which might contain certain personal data. The Commission does neither store case law nor the search results.

Court Database – Fundamental Rights Interactive Tool Data protection record DPR-EC-01510)

The Competent Court Database (CDB) and the Fundamental Rights Interactive Tool (FRIT) are two services provided to the general public by the Commission and Member States allowing users to identify the authorities competent for certain European cross-border legal instruments and the enforcement of their fundamental rights (Data protection record DPR-EC-01510). Member States provide the Commission with the relevant contact details. The Commission is only responsible for the publication of such data.

These tools are processing contact details of competent authorities (including for the enforcement of fundamental rights); in certain cases contact details may refer to an individual person.

Find a company – Business Registers Interconnection System Data protection record DPR- EC-03328

The Find a company/ Interconnection of business registers service allows you to look for and get information about companies registered in business registers in the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Norway. It is part of the Business Registers Interconnection System (BRIS), set up in line with EU law. The system connects the national business registers which make available the company information (Data protection record DPR- EC-03328). While most of the data on companies in the business registers are non-personal, some of the documents obtained e.g. names of directors, legal representatives, shareholders etc.

European Training Platform Data protection record DPR- EC-01511

The European Training Platform (ETP) is a search tool at the service of justice professionals, in collaboration with recognised training providers and partners, who inform about and share high-quality self-learning materials on the ETP and thereby contribute to the descriptions of the content on the ETP. The European Commission and EU agencies also contribute to the platform with ready-to-use self-learning materials or handbooks. The recognised training providers are responsible for the information they share about the trainings. All information provided on the ETP describes the trainings, recognised as high quality content, in accordance with the applicable legislation on the protection of personal data (the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)). The Commission provides a search tool to enable searches for data stored by the training providers. The Commission does neither store such contact details nor the search results.

Other personal data processing in the e-Justice Portal

The e-Justice Portal processes personal data of users for e-mail notification purposes, as well as personal data of the administrators responsible for the management of the specific functionalities of the Portal and its systems.

The e-Justice Portal authenticates its registered users through the Commission's EU Login service. A separate privacy statement explains the nature of processing of personal data by EU Login.

None of the personal data processing operations are used for automated decision-making, including profiling (Article 24 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725).

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data?

We process your personal data, because processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body (Article 5(1)(a) of the Regulation). Some forms of data processing are also consent-based (Article 5(1)(d) of the Regulation). The e-Justice Portal, and its various features and services, is provided further to Article 81 and 82 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU). In addition, the processing of personal data in the context of the Find a company/ Interconnection of business registers service is also carried out on the basis of Article 5(1)(b) of the Regulation. This processing is necessary in order to provide company documents (which may contain personal data) to the users of the "Find a company" page of the European e-Justice Portal, as required by Directive (EU) 2017/1132 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 relating to certain aspects of company law.

The processing of personal data is also governed by the Commission Decision on "The protection of personal data in the European e-Justice Portal" of 5 June 2014.

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

The e-Justice Portal core platform

In the context of the general functioning of the European e-Justice Portal, the data controller processes the following categories of personal data:

- Personal data of the e-Justice Portal content administrators, personal data provided by users when using the e-Justice Portal, including in the context of contacts with the support mailbox (e-Justice Portal core platform - DPR-EC-01506).

Moreover, in order to carry out those processing operations, the data controller collects the following categories of personal data:

- Personal data collected in the context of EU login (name and e-mail address). We obtain these personal data from the EU login service.
- Personal data of administrators (name and e-mail). We have obtained such personal data from the relevant national authorities.

Personal data processed in the context of the Portal's services

- Names and contact details (such as, for instance, e-mail address, telephone number) of lawyers and notaries (Find a lawyer / Find a notary - DPR-EC-01507).
- Personal data included in European and national case law, made available in accordance with applicable European or national legislation (ECLI search engine- DPR-EC-01508).
- Names and contact details (such as, for instance, e-mail address, telephone number) of individuals who may be competent in the context of civil law procedures and/or for the enforcement of citizens' fundamental rights (Court Database - Fundamental Rights Interactive Tool - DPR-EC-015010).
- The public documents available through the "Find a company" page of the European e-Justice Portal (e.g. instrument of constitution, statutes, accounting documents etc.) may contain personal data related to a company (e.g. directors, legal representatives, shareholders etc.). The categories may vary according to the national business register of provenience, and may include information such as: gender (Mr/Ms), name, surname(s), parents' names, date of birth, ID/passport number, date of issuance and expiry date, tax number or other national identification numbers, address and signature (DPR-EC-03328)

In the context of services which rely on data provided by third parties, the e-Justice Portal disseminates personal data mentioned above in case they are already being disclosed by other data controllers. The initial collection of such data may be mandatory under the applicable legislation.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The data controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing, namely for:

- Personal data of content administrators and contact persons are stored until the person fulfills his or her functions; the validity of the data is checked in the context of an annual update of the content of the e-Justice Portal; rectifications are also carried out upon request (DPR-EC-01506, DPR-EC-01507, DPR-EC-01508, and DPR-EC-01510).
- Personal data are retrieved from the databases of the participating bar associations and law societies. They are not stored by the e-Justice Portal, and are displayed only for the duration of the visualisation of search results (Find a lawyer / Find a notary - DPR-EC-01507).
- Personal data may be included in judicial decisions provided by European and national partners publishing case law ("ECLI providers"). The e-Justice Portal stores these data as part of each decision's metadata and search indexes, as long as the providing entity does not anonymise or remove the respective judicial decision (ECLI search engine - DPR-EC-01508).
- With regard to the e-Justice Portal, personal data are being stored only during the preparation of relevant form by the applicant.
- Personal data obtained via the Find a company functionality are stored on the platform for 6 days from the moment the file is made available for downloading (DPR-EC-03328)

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored on the servers of the European Commission. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to the Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

With respect to the data available on the public-facing component of the e-Justice Portal, access to personal data is provided to the general public. Personal data processed for determination of responsible technical contact points and processed for support and troubleshooting purposes (including personal data retrieved by the EU Login system) are only accessible by authorised Commission staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and if relevant, additional confidentiality agreements.

If you contact us by using the e-Justice Portal’s “Your Feedback” tool, authorised staff will process your personal data. Subject to your consent, we may also forward your message (including personal data contained therein) to other competent European institutions or national authorities.

Personal data is processed in the context of collecting web traffic statistics. This is done by the Commission Europa Analytics system. You may learn more about what and how personal data are processed by Europa Analytics here.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a data subject under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access your personal data and to rectify them in case they are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

In cases where the e-Justice Portal makes available personal data initially collected by third parties (e.g. Member State registers and databases, we will transfer requests for the exercise of data subjects’ rights to the known data controllers.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) on grounds relating to your particular situation.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict, the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified herein) in your request.

9. Contact information

The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the responsible Data Controller: DG JUST Unit A1 Digital transition & Judicial training (just-e-justice@ec.europa.eu)

The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (data-protection-officer@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor

(edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the Data Controller.

10. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register>.

These specific processing operations have been included in the DPO's public register under the following references: DPR-EC-01506, DPR-EC-01507, DPR-EC-01508, DPR-EC-01510, DPR-EC-01511 and DPR- EC-03328.

2. Personal data protection rules

The European Union is committed to user privacy. The policy on "protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions" is based on Regulation (EC) N° 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018.

This general policy covers the European Union's family of institutional Web Sites, within the eu domain.

Although you can browse through most of these Web Sites without giving any information about yourself, in some cases, personal information is required in order to provide the e-services you request.

Web Sites that require such information treat it according to the policy described in the Regulation mentioned above and provide information about the use of your data in their specific privacy policy statements.

In this respect:

- For each specific e-service, a controller determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data and ensures conformity of the specific e-service with the privacy policy;
- Within each Institution, a Data Protection Officer ensures that the provisions of the Regulation are applied and advises controllers on fulfilling their obligations (see art. 43-45 of the Regulation);
- For all the Institutions, the European Data Protection Supervisor will act as an independent supervisory authority (see art. 52 to 60 of the Regulation).
- The European Union's family of institutional Web Sites, within the eu domain, provides links to third party sites. Since we do not control them, we encourage you to review their privacy policies.

What is an e-service?

An e-service on EUROPA is a service or resource made available on the Internet in order to improve the communication between citizens and businesses on the one hand and the European Institutions on the other hand.

Three types of e-services are or will be offered by EUROPA:

1. Information services that provide citizens, media, business, administrations and other decision makers with easy and effective access to information, thus increasing transparency and understanding of the policies and activities of the EU;
2. Interactive communication services that allow better contacts with citizens, business, civil society and public actors thus facilitating policy consultations, and feedback mechanisms, in order to contribute to the shaping of policies, the activities and the services of the EU;
3. Transaction services that allow access to all basic forms of transactions with the EU, e.g. procurement, financial operations, recruitment, event enrolment, acquisition or purchase of documents etc.

How do we treat e-mails you send us?

All webpages have a "Your feedback" link, which allows you to send your comments to a specific functional mailbox. When you send such a message, the personal data provided is collected by the addressee only to the extent necessary to reply. If the management team of the mailbox is unable to answer your question, it will forward your e-mail to another service. You will be informed, via e-mail, about which service your question has been forwarded to. The website will not maintain records of any e-mail exchanges carried out using this functionality.

If you have any questions about the processing of your e-mail and related personal data, do not hesitate to include them in your message.
