Consumer Law Database

A tool offering easy access to the national rules transforming the key EU consumer directives in EU countries.

Who’s it for?

It’s for everyone – from consumers and businesses through to legal practitioners and enforcement authorities.

What does it cover?

It includes:

- key EU directives on consumer law
- measures to incorporate them into national law
- past legal rulings from EU countries and the European Court of Justice
- relevant national administrative practice.

How does it work?

It helps consumers, businesses, lawyers, judges etc. to quickly check rights and obligations arising from consumer law.

How does it fit into the EU’s overall consumer policy?

It aims to raise awareness of EU consumer law, make compliance easier and enhance enforcement of consumer law.

To help make this database as complete and easy to use as possible, use this form to send us your comments.

This page is maintained by the European Commission. The information on this page does not necessarily reflect the official position of the European Commission. The Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice with regard to copyright rules for European pages.

The Commission is in the process of updating some of the content on this website in the light of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. If the site contains content that does not yet reflect the withdrawal of the United Kingdom, it is unintentional and will be addressed.

Last update: 24/08/2018