

Insolvency registers - Austria

This section of the Portal provides a brief introduction to Austria's insolvency register.

What does the Austrian insolvency register offer?

The Austrian insolvency register is owned and maintained by the Austrian Federal Ministry of Justice. It contains information on the initiation of insolvency proceedings and key procedural steps in the process.

The Austrian insolvency register is published via the Ediktsdatei webpage ('legal notices database').

Is access to the insolvency register free of charge?

Yes.

How to search the Austrian insolvency register

Detailed information is available in German only on the website of the Austrian Federal Ministry of Justice, under the heading Ediktsdatei ('legal notices database').

History of the Austrian insolvency register

The Austrian insolvency register has been operational since 1999.

Related links

Organisation of justice – Austria

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.

Member States in charge of the management of national content pages are in the process of updating some of the content on this website in the light of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. If the site contains content that does not yet reflect the withdrawal of the United Kingdom, it is unintentional and will be addressed.

Last update: 15/06/2018