

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

Mediation

Ireland

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

1. Where a court before which an action is brought invites the parties to use mediation, and an agreement results from that mediation, that court is competent to receive the request for the enforceability of the agreement.
2. In all other cases, the Master of the High Court is the competent authority for the receipt of enforceability requests.

Last update: 29/03/2021

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.