

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

Mediation

Poland

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

Please note that the original language version of this page pl has been amended recently. The language version you are now viewing is currently being prepared by our translators.

Polish

Please note that the following languages: fr have already been translated.

French

Pursuant to Article 18313 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the authority competent to receive applications for enforcement of a written settlement resulting from mediation is:

- In the case of mediation by a court: the court hearing the case,
 - In the case of out-of-court mediation (contractual): the court that would be competent to examine the case according to general or exclusive jurisdiction, i.e. as set out under Articles 28 to 30 and 38 to 42 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The court may be located in the place of residence, in the debtor's domicile, or, for example, in the area where the property is situated. In relations between parents and children, it is the court located in the creditor's place of residence.
- Last update: 13/06/2019

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.