

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

Mediation

Sweden

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

Competent authorities according to article 6.3: the district courts (tingsrätterna). Which district court is competent depends upon where the mediation agreement is concluded. If there is no competent court according to this rule, for example when the agreement is concluded outside Sweden, the district court of Värmland is competent. An application for a declaration of enforceability shall be made to the District court which has jurisdiction over the area where one of the parties has its habitual residence.

If none of the parties has its habitual residence in Sweden, the District Court of Värmland shall be the competent jurisdiction.

Värmlands tingsrätt

Postal address: Box 188 SE-651 05 Karlstad

Tel: + 46 (0)54 14 84 00

Email: varmlands.tingsratt@dom.se

Last update: 16/01/2023

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.