Matters of matrimonial property regimes

Belgium

Article 64(1) (a) - the courts or authorities with competence to deal with applications for a declaration of enforceability in accordance with Article 44(1) and with appeals against decisions on such applications in accordance with Article 49(2)

With competence to deal with applications for a declaration of enforceability: the court of first instance, more specifically the family court (‘tribunal de la famille’).

As regards appeals against decisions on such applications:

to lodge an objection: the court of first instance, more specifically the family court (‘tribunal de la famille’);

to lodge an appeal: the Court of Appeal (‘Cour d'appel’).

Article 64(1) (b) - the procedures to contest the decision given on appeal referred to in Article 50

Decisions delivered on appeal are subject to review by the Court of Cassation (‘Cour de Cassation’) alone.

Article 65 (1) - the list of the other authorities and legal professionals referred to in Article 3(2)

No other authorities according to the criteria laid down in Article 3(2).

Last update: 06/03/2023

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.