Questioni di effetti patrimoniali delle unioni registrate

Informazioni nazionali per quanto riguarda il regolamento 2016/1104

Nel giugno 2016 l'Unione europea ha adottato un regolamento concernente gli effetti patrimoniali delle unioni registrate internazionali al fine di aiutare le coppie a gestire le loro proprietà su base giornaliera e a dividerle in caso di scioglimento o di decesso di uno dei membri della coppia. Il regolamento è stato adottato nell'ambito della procedura di cooperazione rafforzata da 18 Stati membri dell'Unione europea: Svezia, Belgio, Grecia, Croazia, Slovenia, Spagna, Francia, Portogallo, Italia, Malta, Lussemburgo, Germania, Repubblica ceca, Paesi Bassi, Austria, Bulgaria, Finlandia e Cipro. Altri Stati membri UE possono aderire al regolamento in qualsiasi momento (in tal caso il paese dovrà aderire anche al regolamento in materia di regimi patrimoniali dei matrimoni).
Il regolamento fornisce alle unioni registrate internazionali la certezza del diritto e riduce i costi del procedimento, in quanto le coppie potranno individuare con chiarezza quale giudice dello Stato membro UE tratterà questioni relative alle loro proprietà e quale legge nazionale dovrebbe trovare applicazione per risolvere tali questioni. Il regolamento facilita anche il riconoscimento e l'esecuzione delle decisioni in materia di proprietà adottate in uno Stato membro UE ma di applicazione in un altro Stato membro UE. Dal momento che il patrimonio proprietà della coppia deve essere suddiviso in caso di decesso, il regolamento agevola l'applicazione delle norme dell'UE in materia di successioni transfrontaliere. Il regolamento è in vigore dal 29 gennaio 2019.

Matters of the property consequences of registered partnerships - France

Article 64(1) (a) - the courts or authorities with competence to deal with applications for a declaration of enforceability in accordance with Article 44(1) and with appeals against decisions on such applications in accordance with Article 49(2)

The applications referred to in Article 44 are to be submitted to the chief registrar (greffier en chef) of the court (tribunal judiciaire) (Articles 509(1) and 509(2) of the Code of Civil Procedure (Code de procédure civile)) where they relate to a court decision or court settlement, and to the president of the Association of Notaries (chambre des notaires), or his or her replacement in case of absence or incapacity (Article 509-3 of the Code of Civil Procedure), if they relate to an authentic instrument.

The appeals referred to in Article 49(2) are lodged before the president of the court (Article 509-9 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

Where they relate to a court decision or court settlement:

*Applications for a declaration of enforceability of a decision of a French court to be recognised and enforced abroad are submitted to the chief registrar of the court issuing the decision or approving the agreement (Article 509-1 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

*Applications for a declaration of enforceability, on French territory, of foreign enforcement orders, are submitted to the chief registrar of the court (Article 509-2 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

if they relate to an authentic instrument;

*Application for the certification of French authenticated notarial acts in view of their recognition and implementation abroad are submitted to the notary or the legal entity owning the notary's office which keeps the original of the document received (Article 509-3 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

*Application for the certification of foreign authenticated notarial acts on French territory are submitted to the president of the Association of Notaries, or his or her replacement in case of absence or incapacity (Article 509-3 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

Appeals referred to in Article 49(2):

Appeals against declarations of enforceability of foreign enforcement orders and acts on French territory, are submitted to the president of the court (Article 509-9 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

Article 64(1) (b) - the procedures to contest the decision given on appeal referred to in Article 50

A decision handed down by the president of the court on an appeal can be contested only by bringing an appeal on a point of law (pourvoi en cassation) before the court of Cassation (Cour de Cassation).

The grounds for an appeal on a point of law may differ (ruling contravening the law, misuse of power, lack of jurisdiction, lack of legal basis, lack of legal grounds, conflicting judgments, etc.), but in each case the court limits itself to a review of the application of the law. This means that the Court of Cassation checks that the ruling did not contravene the law or disregard the rule of law but does not examine the facts of the case.

Matters of the property consequences of registered partnerships - Croatia

Article 64(1) (a) - the courts or authorities with competence to deal with applications for a declaration of enforceability in accordance with Article 44(1) and with appeals against decisions on such applications in accordance with Article 49(2)

Applications for a declaration of enforceability in accordance with Article 44(1) and appeals against decisions on such applications in accordance with Article 49(2) are to be lodged with the municipal courts.

The responsible courts are:

All municipal courts under the Territories and Seats of Courts Act (Narodne novine (NN; Official Gazette of the Republic of Croatia) No 128/14).

Article 64(1) (b) - the procedures to contest the decision given on appeal referred to in Article 50

Under applicable national law in Croatia, there is no mechanism by which, for the purposes of Article 50, a decision on a legal remedy may be further contested, i.e. there are no courts with which a further appeal may be lodged.

Article 65 (1) - the list of the other authorities and legal professionals referred to in Article 3(2)

In Croatia, the municipal courts are responsible for dealing with non-litigious and enforcement cases under the Courts Act (NN Nos 28/13, 33/15, 82/15, 82 /16). Therefore, under applicable national law in Croatia, there are no other competent authorities or legal professionals in accordance with Article 3(2) of the Regulation with competence in matters of matrimonial property regimes which exercise judicial functions or act by delegation of power by a judicial authority or under its control.
